H.O.G. Rally Comes to Beaumont in 2011

Convention Sales Manager, Rebecca Woodland, gives her insight on how persistent CVB sales and marketing efforts, along with the help of the local HOG Chapter, our convention hotels and Ford Park made hosting the 2011 H.O.G. Rally in Beaumont a reality.

As Convention Sales manager, it is my job to work with meeting planners, particularly our local clients, to bring convention business to the Beaumont area. Our local contact, Sandra Womack, has worked with us before and brought this potential convention to our attention. She came to the CVB to help her organize and plan Beaumont's bidding strategies to submit an offer to host the 2011 H.O.G. Texas State Rally.

The rally is expected to bring in more than 5,000 people to Beaumont. An event this size requires multiple lodging locations, unique meeting facilities, transportation arrangements and registration support. This is where the CVB can really help our clients. By coming to the CVB so early in the process, we were able to assist, guide and provide Sandra with a competitive bid package. It took a lot of coordination, planning efforts and communication by the CVB so that all of the Beaumont hospitality partners could understand and participate in the bid process.

It's my job to understand our group's needs and desires and work hard to help realize them; but, working with Sandra has really been a joy. She is extremely organized and creative and gets everyone involved. I am so delighted to be working with her and thrilled that we were able to assist her in bringing this group to Beaumont! If anyone is a member of an organization or association that schedules meetings or events, I would tell them to contact me at the Beaumont CVB. We really know how to do this in an affordable and professional way and we make you look great!

A Christmas Poem

'Twas the night before Christmas, And not until Spring
Would a motor be running, not even a Wing.
The bikes are all sleeping, they're covered and warm,
Batteries are tended, nylon covers their form.
My Bros were all nestled down snug in their beds,
While visions of new chrome danced in their heads.
And I in my do-rag, bike jacket and boots
Out shoveling snow, and dreaming of scoots.
Then from the horizon there came such a clatter
My shovel I dropped, what could be the matter?
Away up the hill, I slogged through the snow
Looked up at the sky; where'd all that noise go?
Then a throb from the heavens, like straight pipes so hearty
Gave Summers' good thoughts, a loud bikers' party.
When, what to my wondering eyes should appear
But a Hog Ultra Classic, Red trailer in rear!
With a little old rider, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than a V-Rod his Ultra came on,
And he whistled, and shouted, and sang out this song;
"Now, Springer! Now, Dyna! On Ultra and Softail!
Now Vulcan! Now Injun! On Victory and Triumph!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now RIDE away! RIDE away! RIDE away all!"
As small bikes that from the semis do fly,
When they meet with the air blast, mount to the sky,
So up to the house-top that Ultra it flew
With a trailer of goodies, and ole' St. Nick too
And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The rumble and thunder of pipes that gave proof.
I ran in the house, boots thumping around,
And in came St. Nick all bearded and round
Dressed all in black leather, from do-rag to boot
His chaps were all tarnished with road grime and soot;
A T-bag of goodies he'd flung on his back
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack
His shades -- how they twinkled! his do-rag how scary!
With chains intertwined, through skulls that were cherry!
His droll little mouth had done many a row,
So the beard of his chin was as white as the snow.
The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
The smoke had a strange smell; it gave him relief.
He had a broad face and a large fat beer belly
That shook when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly
He was tattooed and plump, a right jolly old rider,
So I offered a cold brew, thought what could be righter?
A wink of his eye as he downed that cold beer,
Gave me to know I had nothing to fear
He spoke not a word, but went straight to my ride
And fixed it with Chrome, Horsepower and Pride
And giving the peace sign with bikers' good cheer
Strode off to his Ultra rumbling near
He sprang on the saddle, his gloves on the bars
A wheelie he threw; then off towards the stars
I heard him exclaim, as my chest swelled with pride,
"MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL, AND TO ALL A GOOD RIDE!"

We Wish You
A Very
Merry Christmas

A Wonderful
New Year!*
